

Bible Study for Good Friday, April 2, 2021

Read: Hebrews 10:16-25

Notes:

Life and death stand side by side as we enter into Good Friday. While on the one hand we recall Jesus' trial and death, we are also reminded that the purpose of all this so that all people might be drawn to Christ and receive eternal life. In the death of Jesus, forgiveness of sins is accomplished and access to God is established. Therefore, when we gather together for worship and when we love others, we experience anew the benefits of Jesus' death.

Questions to Ponder:

How much of your time is spent with a gnawing and vague sense of guilt? All the time? Some of the time? A small fraction of the time? Why is that?

Why is the written law insufficient? Why can it not save us on its own?

Do you live your life as if you were being made holy? Why or why not?

Note the 4 "let us" statements in verses 22-25. What does each one mean to you? What incentives are given? How are you doing at following them?

Do you feel more or less a sense of guilt than when we started?
