Read: 2 Corinthians 6:1-13

Notes:

In this lesson Paul describes how he and his fellow workers experience great hardships and even rejection while carrying out their missionary work. Nevertheless, Paul continuously proclaims that God has not rejected us but is graciously working for our salvation.

Questions to Ponder:

Does this lesson give you causes for hope or hopelessness? Why?

How does Paul defend the authenticity of his ministry here?

What do you think Paul sees as the real test of faith?

By what standards do you gauge a successful ministry? Why? How does this compare with verses 4-10?

Would Paul be a success by your standards? Would you?
